

County Longford Graveyard Inventory
Famine Remembrance Garden
(Adjacent to site of old Longford Workhouse)

Name of Fieldworker & Date of Audit	Jimmy Lennon: Sept 2005
Name of Graveyard	Longford Remembrance Garden
Dedication	Not known
Townland	Glack
Parish	Templemichael
Diocese	Ardagh & Clonmacnoise
County	Longford
Nearest National Primary National Secondary or Regional Road	N4
Current Status	Closed
Graveyard Description	Unmarked graves. Green field area with a number of commemorative features
Denomination	Primarily R.C. we would presume
Place of Worship	No
Pattern Day	No
Owner	Unable to ascertain
Number of inscribed memorials	N/A
Date of oldest inscription	N/A
Date of latest inscription	N/A
Access:	Public
Access Form	Tar
Gateways & Stiles	1 wrought iron gate
Wheelchair Access
Parking Space	Yes
Pathways	Tar
Boundary condition	Stonewall
Terrain	Hilly
Growth of vegetation	Grass well mown
Overall condition	Very Good
Historical Ruins or Artefacts	Mill Wheel and replica of 'Sepulchre'.
Directional Signage and its condition
Information Panels and their condition	Yes. Good condition
Signs of vandalism	No
Recorded in Irish Church Temporalities Commission Report for Period 1869- 80	No
RMP Number	Adjacent to LFO13 -029. Enclosure Site (Glack)
RPS Number	Not listed
Caretaker & contact number
Graveyard Committee & contact number
Clergy & contact number
Burial registers & their location and dates
Published references & location	Sister Calasanctius Rembers By Sister Calasanctius (Matron of Saint

	Joseph's Hospital}
Memorial inscription documentation	N/A
Location of transcripts	N/A

Famine Remembrance Garden (Longford Town)

